

2020 Korean Association for Public Administration International Conference

Call for Proposals

“Inclusive Society, Sustainable Development, and Administrative Responsibility”

The Korean Association for Public Administration (KAPA) is pleased to open the call for proposals for the 2020 KAPA international conference. The conference will be held on June 25-27, 2020 in Gangneung, South Korea. In 2019, more than 200 papers were presented at the KAPA conference. As a host of this year’s conference, the KAPA aims to promote inclusive society, sustainable development, and administrative responsibility.

The current environment surrounding the field of public administration underscores the value of bringing together researchers and practitioners with a wide range of perspectives to engage the evidence and discuss how best to improve public policy. It is our hope that this year’s conference theme, Inclusive Society, Sustainable Development, and Administrative Responsibility, will encourage a conference with conversations that reach across disciplinary, methodological and ideological divides

About KAPA

The KAPA is one of the world’s largest academic organizations in the field of public administration and policy. The KAPA was founded in 1956 shortly after the Korean war. The KAPA has grown to approximately 2,000 scholar members, public officials, and research institutions.

The KAPA works very actively as a central post for the academic activities of Korean public administration and policy. Furthermore, it strives to offer a valuable venue for scholarship and friendship for the international communities of public administration, ranging from Asia to other continents such as the Americas, Europe, and Africa.

The KAPA publishes the International Review of Public Administration, which is an international journal registered to Scopus and published by Taylor & Francis Group. In addition, the KAPA also publishes the Korean Public Administration Review (in Korean), which is selected as the top social science journal in Korea by the National Research Foundation of Korea.
